POSTAL SERVICE

Lerner and Greenberg, P.A.

Hollywood, FL 33020

Dear Sir:

Per our telephone conversation, this is to assure you that we did accept the Express item, label number EL080657938US, on February 22, 2000.

This mailing included two Express Mail envelopes taped together with the Express Mail label on top. We did weigh in both parcels and assessed you the amount of $36.80. After going into the mailstream, the two envelopes came apart. The bottom parcel, having no label on it, went to the Dead Letter Office in Atlanta, Georgia. Upon opening it, your address was found and it was sent back to you. The Express Mail label (see attached) listed the patent items that were contained in both envelopes.

Due to the error made on our part, we will be happy to forward the remaining items to the Patent Office as soon as you bring them into the Post Office located at 1801 Polk Street. I have made another manager in the office, Dave Shimpeno, aware of this situation so ask for either one of us.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Mahon
